Scholarship and Bursary Descriptions

SECONDARY:

Audre Lorde LGBTQ2S+ Scholarship

Audre Geraldine Lorde was a black writer, feminist, womanist, lesbian, and civil rights activist, who dedicated both her life and her creative talent to confronting and addressing the injustices of racism, sexism, and homophobia. (Died 17 November 1992)

This scholarship is given to an individual under the age of 29 who is pursuing post-secondary education, has made significant contributions to the community, and who identifies as LGBTQ2S+. HBHC recognizes and respects the fact that identifying as a member of the LGBTQ2S+ community is a personal decision. HBHC honours one's decision to identify openly or to decide not to do so at all. If the applicant wishes to keep their application and awarded scholarship (if applicable) private, this must be communicated by email to jchaselection@hbhc.ca. The applicant may also opt out of accepting the scholarship at the event and also has the option of appointing someone to accept on their behalf, with appropriate consent. The External Selections Committee will take appropriate measures to safeguard the privacy of the applicant. Additionally, the Committee will only communicate with the applicant by way of their preferred email address.

Dampney Scholarship for Civic Leadership

Kojo Dampney is an avid civic leader who has worked tirelessly to make Hamilton a better city for all residents. From 2018 to 2023, Kojo was the Executive Director of the Hamilton Centre for Civic Inclusion (HCCI). During his time as the Executive Director, he was instrumental in supporting Black youth through the Black Youth Mentorship Program in partnership with the Hamilton Wentworth District School board. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Kojo worked with community organizations, community health experts, residents, and academics to raise the issues of health equity, vaccine confidence and the importance of Public Health. Kojo is also an established musician who has contributed to the Hamilton music scene by running festivals where emerging Black Indigenous People of Color artists could share their talents with an audience. Kojo advocated successfully to have musicians paid fairly when they performed at any city event.

This scholarship is given to a student who has demonstrated community leadership and civic engagement in their school, workplace, neighbourhood, or community. The individual must work collaboratively to bring about transformational change.

These bursaries are given to individuals who have excelled academically and have made a positive impact in their school and community.

Sponsored by: General Community Donors

Good Shepherd Health and Social Services Scholarship

Good Shepherd has been a compassionate presence in the Hamilton community for the past 60 years. Its work is based on a fundamental belief in providing hope and restoring dignity to the city’s most vulnerable citizens through programs that seek to tear down barriers and establish a path to a stable and healthy life.

This scholarship is granted to an individual whose school and community contributions best exemplify the values of compassion, hope and dignity and who has shown an interest in pursuing a career in health or social services.

Sponsored by: Good Shepherd

Hamilton Steelworkers Area Council "Community Matters" Scholarship

The Hamilton Steelworkers Area Council has taken on the mantra “Community Matters”, a principle which drives its work in the community in organizing barbecues, working with community hubs and several charities, serving the homeless and those in need, hosting The International Day For The Elimination of Racial Discrimination, among other volunteer-driven activities. As a means of fostering the spirit of community, the Council strongly encourages youth to become active members of their communities through effective volunteerism.

This scholarship is granted to an individual who best exemplifies the spirit of “Community Matters” through volunteerism with agencies or groups dealing with those most in need in our community.

Sponsored by: Hamilton Steelworkers Area Council

Immigrants Matter Bursary

The Immigrants Matter bursary honours the important contributions that immigrants make to the Hamilton community while acknowledging the unique challenges they may face during the settlement process.

This bursary is given to an individual who is an immigrant to the City of Hamilton. Preference is given to an individual who demonstrates financial need and has overcome difficulty in settling within the community.

Reverend George Horton Scholarship

Reverend George Horton was born in Guyana. Horton lived an adventurous life that included serving as a police officer in Guyana, earning a master's degree at New York University and becoming Hamilton's first Black Police Chaplain. As a pastor, Horton served at many Hamilton churches, including Stewart Memorial. (Died 26 February 2017, Hamilton, ON)

This scholarship is given to an individual who has shown interest in the area of Law or Religious/Cultural Studies.

Sponsored by: Hamilton Community News

STEM Scholarship

The closely related fields of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) require greater representation from Black communities. The STEM scholarship seeks to encourage Black youth with a curiosity and interest in STEM to explore the possibilities and find a place for themselves in STEM-related fields.

This scholarship is given to an individual who has demonstrated interest in the area of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM).

Sponsored by: Canadian Black Chamber of Commerce

Tune-In Foundation Bursary

Dejehan (Luckystickz) Hamilton is a singer-songwriter, recording artist and one of the leading steelpan/percussionists in Canada who has worked with such legends as Harry Belafonte, Brian Mcknight and Chili (of TLC) and others. He has developed into an international award-winning and dynamic motivational speaker focused on youth/youth influencers and also works directly with youth locally by connecting them with resources that support their overall health and well-being. As the Founder and Executive Director of the Tune In Foundation, an organization focused on youth empowerment through music education across the globe, Dejehan has worked to positively impact those who are marginalized through targeted programming, one of which is participation in the annual Musica Palooza Camps throughout Ontario.

This bursary is given to an individual who is pursuing studies in music or the arts and/or who has used their talents to ignite creativity in others.

Sponsored by: Tune In Foundation

YWCA “Girls Rock” Scholarship
